

My staff and I from Disability Services Division of Social Development Department, Government of the Virgin Islands, participated in the Equipping Minds LIVESTREAM Conference and found it extremely rewarding because it was easy to follow, understand and participate although we were not physically present. An added benefit was the extended access to the recording which enabled us to review any aspect of the training which needed reinforcement. I highly recommend LIVESTREAM as a viable option given our current restrictions.

Lorna Dawson

Programme Director, Autism/
Supervisor Disability Services
Social Development Department
Government of the Virgin Islands